

A+ Software Support

Bookings 020 7837 2690

www.premierit.com

Course Duration: 4 days	Course Hours: 10am - 5pm
Pre-requisites: Delegates should have successfully completed the "PC Fundamentals" Course or be confident with the use and understanding of Windows Explorer, creating and managing files, basic DOS commands and the use of the DOS Editor
Objectives: At the end of the course, the delegate will be able to: Partition and format hard disk drives • Install and configure Windows 98, Windows Me, Windows NT and Windows 2000 • Create, configure and use network and Internet connections • Support and troubleshoot operating systems and applications

Operating systems
Microsoft Operating Systems
Contrasting Windows 3.x and Windows 95
Navigating DOS
DOS File Management
Introduction to Windows 98
Installing Windows 98
The Windows 98 Boot Process
Troubleshooting the Windows 98 Boot Process
Windows 98 Structure
The Registry
Navigating Windows 98
Windows File Management
Windows Disk Management
Running Applications in Windows 98
Configuring Windows 98 Drivers
Windows 98 Printing
Configuring Windows 98 Virtual Memory
Windows Millennium Edition
Networking
The Internet
Internet Services
TCP/IP
Accessing the Internet
Domain Names
Internet Security
Features of Windows NT

Course Structure: Each course is divided into a series of units, supported by relevant practical exercises. You may join a public course, or book your own dedicated company room. You can also tailor the content to your specific needs; accelerating the course or running a workshop.

Help Facility: Provided by our tutors, this facility includes course content only, for a limited period.

Manuals: A comprehensive course manual provides support throughout the course, and is a useful reference for your newly acquired skills upon your return to the office.

Internal Use Only: crscode AP03

A+ Software Support

Bookings 020 7837 2690

www.premierit.com

Installing Windows NT
The Windows NT Boot Process
Configuring Windows NT Workstation
User Account Management
Windows NT File Systems
Managing Disk Resources
Troubleshooting Windows NT
Overview of Windows 2000
Windows 2000 Setup
The Windows 2000 Boot Process
Administering Windows 2000
Disk and Storage Management
Managing Users and Groups
Managing NTFS Security
Other Windows 2000 Security Features

Course Structure: Each course is divided into a series of units, supported by relevant practical exercises. You may join a public course, or book your own dedicated company room. You can also tailor the content to your specific needs; accelerating the course or running a workshop.

Help Facility: Provided by our tutors, this facility includes course content only, for a limited period.

Manuals: A comprehensive course manual provides support throughout the course, and is a useful reference for your newly acquired skills upon your return to the office.

Internal Use Only: crscode AP03

